

Social Studies Newsletter

Mr. B's 9th Grade US will be studying the Progressive Era and preparing to welcome a new student teacher, Ms. Weeks. The 12th grade is still competing in the Stock Market Game. Brittney Ritts is currently ranked 3rd in the state having earned $22,365 in 3 months.

Mr. Knox's US history students are also studying the Progressive Era. His 7th grade class is studying the Middle Ages, sorry no knights in shining armor slaying dragons.

Mr. Morrow's history class has just finished studying Ancient Rome and is now preparing to attribute their Roman coins. Psychology will be returning to dream analysis and then moving on to abnormal behavior.

Mrs. Robinson's 8th grade class is working on the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Driver's Ed is learning whether a car alarm is a deterrent to thieves or just an annoying sound for them to hotwire a car to.

Mr. Markle's AP students are learning about the nuances of Sharia Law as a basis for government. His US history classes are looking at the United States involvement the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq.